Visuals For Law

visualsforlaw.com · 30-day window: April 21 – May 20, 2026

Traffic is up sharply month-over-month, driven by a concentrated three-day surge in early May. Engagement quality improved alongside volume — average time per session jumped roughly 5x. Top engagement is on the homepage and the AI / Rule 707 blog post; SEO and paid channels remain underdeveloped.

TRAFFIC OVER TIME

WHAT STOOD OUT

May 2–4 surge

Three consecutive days drove 284 pageviews (65% of the month) and 54 sessions. Outside this window the site averages ~6 pageviews/day. Worth identifying the source — May 4 alone produced 31 sessions vs. a typical 2–6.

Best-performing blog post

</blog/ai-courtroom-visual-evidence-rule-707/> drew 11 pageviews, more than any other non-navigation page. Strong thesis-led content on AI in evidence rules is resonating — candidate for follow-up posts.
